

Carlin 13

Going Home

回家

Documentary Film

Produced & Directed by Min Zhou

Dec. 10, 2022
1PM - 3PM

Free to Public

West Meeting
Room at
Central Library
828 "I" Street
Sacramento
CA 95814

A story about 13 Chinese workers who participated in the construction of the Transcontinental Railroad, discovery of their remains in Carlin, Nevada in 1996, and reburied in the Carlin City Cemetery on July 3rd, 2018 after more than two decades of efforts of the Carlin community.

Panel Discussion

Transcontinental Railroad and Chinese Railroad Workers

Min Zhou Documentary Film Producer and Director
Phil Sexton Historian

